Professor & Higher Education – Academic Program Participation

WinEstimator, Inc. is providing a valuable opportunity for college and university programs to acquire and use the industry leading AEC cost estimating software. The academic application of this software, for educational purposes only, may be used on-site for instructional use in both classrooms and labs.

The coordinating or lead professor who wishes to participate in this program can submit the completed 'WinEstimator Educational Use Request Form'.

Approved Partners in Education will receive the current academic version of this software, for which the usual and customary fees will be waived (at no charge). In addition, one professor per school is allowed to attend a corporate scheduled open enrollment WinEst educational course (one training seminar per school year space permitting). The academic version approved for inclusion in this program, is WinEst Pro Plus.

Please note the following restrictions and limitations for participation in this program:

- Academic Participation License expires on August 1st following the date of activation and can be renewed annually with a phone call or email request.
- Academic Participation License may be approved only for WinEstimator, Inc. databases and integrators (including takeoff).
- Free Updates
